

PRESS RELEASE

Sky Europe passengers can fly with Alitalia at preferential rates

Rome, 2 September 2009 – In order to assist passengers from Sky Europe, Alitalia is offering special fares for those passengers who are in possession of paper tickets (or an electronic ticket receipt) issued by the low cost carrier before 31st August 2009.

Sky Europe passengers will be able to purchase Alitalia tickets as follows:

- 59 Euro (plus taxes and surcharges) for one way flights between the Italian airports of Bari, Catania, Milan (Linate and Malpensa), Naples, Rome and Venice and any of the following Sky Europe destinations: Athens, Barcelona, Brussels, Bucharest, Budapest, Istanbul, London, Paris Charles De Gaulle, Sofia and Thessaloniki.
Amsterdam, Nice and Paris Orly are excluded from this initiative.

The promotion is valid for 14 days with effect from 3rd September 2009. Passengers holding tickets issued by Sky Europe can only travel at the special fare on the same day that they were originally intending to travel with the low cost carrier.

Alitalia codeshare flights with SkyTeam partners (flights with the code 7000) are excluded from this promotion with the exception of flights operated by Volare on the Milan Linate to Barcelona route and vice versa.

Tickets at this preferential rate for Sky Europe passengers can be purchased exclusively at the Alitalia ticket desks at the airports, and are subject to availability. The tickets are non-refundable.

For further information please contact the Alitalia call centre on +39 06 2222.
